ARREL FAMILY

The Hon. George Francis Arrel, formerly judge of the court of common pleas, and for many years a prominent member of the Mahoning County bar, has been in active practice in Youngstown for over 35 years. Mr. Arrel was born on October 1, 1840, on his father's farm in Poland Township, Mahoning County, Ohio, and is a son of David and Martha (Moore) Arrel.

John Arrel, the grandfather of Judge Arrel, was born in Franklin County, Pennsylvania, of Irish parentage and came to Ohio in 1799. He stood beneath an oak sapling in Poland Township and looked across the 202.5 acres he had chosen for his family home, where he reared six sons and two daughters. The total acreage is still intact, and the seventh generation of Arrels stands beneath the same oak tree, which is about 305 years old according to rings on a companion tree that was cut down. John Arrel participated in the War of 1812.

David Arrel, the eldest son of John and Martha (Stewart) Arrel, was born in Poland Township, Mahoning County, Ohio, on May 6, 1803. His whole life was devoted to agricultural pursuits in this locality. In 1830 he married Martha Moore, who died in June of 1872; Mr. Arrel died in 1888. Their children were: William; Margaret (the wife of James Pence); John; and George Francis.

George Francis Arrel spent his boyhood and early youth on his father's farm, and attended the local schools before going to Westminister College, New Wilmington, Pennsylvania, where his father sent him when he was 18 years old. He graduated with degrees in general literature, science, and mathematics, in June, 1865. He then engaged in the study of law at Warren, Ohio, until the fall of 1866; he entered the law department of Albany University and graduated in 1867. In August of that same year, he was admitted to the bar, and the following May, he located his practice in Youngstown. In 1870, he was elected city solicitor and served in that office for four successive terms; in 1880, he was elected to the common pleas bench, in the second subdivision of the ninth judicial district and served until February 9, 1887. After retiring from judicial life, he continued his private practice, which included railroad and corporation work. On January 1, 1906, he became a senior member of the law firm of Arrel, Wilson & Harrington. The firm had convenient offices in the Dollar Bank Building in Youngstown.

On October 18, 1876, Judge Arrel married Grace Tod, who is a daughter of the honored son of Ohio, the late Governor David Tod. Judge and Mrs. Arrel had two children, David and Frances Maria.

James Thaddeus Arrel

James Thaddeus Arrel was born on June 1, 1882, in Poland Township, Mahoning County, Ohio, a son of John Arrel, Jr., and his wife, Amelia (McFarland) Arrel, and a grandson of David and Martha (Moore) Arrel. James T. Arrel's great grandfather was John Arrel. James was a prominent farmer who raised thoroughbred cattle and stock, lived on the old homestead farm of the Arrels and owned an additional 100 acres in Poland Township. The family was an agricultural family; David Arrel, grandfather of James T., was reared under similar conditions, as was his father; their livelihood was farming and raising stock. At the age of 27, David married Martha Moore, who died in June, 1872; David died in 1888. They had the following children: William; Margaret, who married James Pence; John, father of James T.; and George Francis, formerly a judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Mahoning County.

John Arrel, Jr., was educated in the common school of his neighborhood and entered into business as a farmer, stock raiser and stock dealer, attaining considerable local prominence in these industries. On January 31, 1877, he married Amelia McFarland, who was born June 4, 1842, in Lawrence County, Pennsylvania, a daughter of Andrew McFarland. They had three children: an infant daughter who died at birth on December 25, 1877; James Thadeus, and Olive Grace, who was born December 22, 1879, and married Dr. J. K. Nash, a prominent dentist residing in Youngstown (they had two children, George Arrel and Olive Grace).

Old Arrel Farm est. 1799

James Thaddeus attended the school in his home community and later spent two years at the Kenyon Military School at Gambier, Ohio. His pursuits were always agricultural and he always showed an interest in raising fine stock. He utilized 265 acres and devoted most of his time to pasturage and Berkshire hogs. He was one of the most enterprising and progressive men of his community.

On April 18, 1906, James married Mary Talbott Ridgely, who was born in Baltimore County, Maryland; Mary was the daughter of Benjamin T. and Elizabeth (Talbott) Ridgely, farming people of considerable importance in that county, and representatives of one of the old county families. Mrs. Arrel is a graduate of Claremont College, of Hickory, Catawba County, North Carolina.

The young settlers cleared the entire acreage, built the area's first "up and down" saw mill, and a lake and mill race to power it, raised flax to make into linen thread, and raised sheep for wool, which was sold to buy more land and raise more sheep.

At shearing time, the sheep were driven to this headquarters farm to be washed and clipped. Men stood all day in the cold water of the stream washing sheep, which numbered about 1,000 during this peak period. The 1874 Mahoning County Atlas shows that this family owned 11 farms.

Foundation stones in the pasture near the still-flowing spring show where the first buildings were built, and sometime before 1880, they were moved to higher ground west of the spring. In the stone-walled cellar entrance to the house, the names of John's youngest son, Walter, and his wife, Martha Duff Arrel, are chiseled (dated 1877).

Since 1948, the farm has been owned by Elizabeth Arrel Thompson, although her three sisters, Margaret Doane, Katherine Smith and Isabel Wymer, are co-owners.

Margaret R. Arrel married Edward L. Doane. They had two children, Ridgely C. and Edward A.. A stately residence was built by the Arrel family in 1833 on Center Road. In 1880, a kitchen and servants' quarters were added. The house has five marble fireplaces and fabulous woodwork throughout. The home has always been owned and occupied by the Arrel family and their descendants. The house was fully renovated in 1993-94. Ridgely C. Doane married Carle D. Robeson, and they have three sons: Richard L.; Neville Doane; and Carle D., Jr. Carle D., Jr. married Barbara Pekar, and they now reside in the stately family home .

William Moore Arrel

From the beginning of the nineteenth century, the Arrel Family has been a prominent family in the Mahoning Valley. The late William Moore Arrel spent his life as an industrious farmer and capable citizen in the country immediately adjacent to Lowellville.

William was born in Poland Township on February 2, 1831, a son of David and Martha (Moore) Arrel. His grandfather was John Arrel, Sr.

The farm where William Moore Arrel spent many years belonged to his aunt, Miss Margaret Arrel, who never occupied the home. Margaret and her unmarried brother, John, spent their lives on another farm for fifty years. Of seven children in the first generation of the Arrel family in Mahoning County, only two were married. They all lived in the county; four died in advanced years.

William Moore Arrel married Jane Martin, a native of Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. Jane was brought as a child to Poland Township by her parents, Hugh and Doris (Blackburn) Martin. Jane's father spent the rest of his life on a farm near Poland Village. After a few years on his farm on State Road, William Moore Arrel moved to the farm adjoining Lowellville, which was located by the Mahoning River and comprised several hundred acres. William did general farming, but the land was also famous for the Arrel quarries, where great quantities of limestone were mined for many years and used by the furnaces. These quarries are now practically depleted. The old home stood about a mile back from the river, and William Moore Arrel died there in October of 1894. Eventually, the quarries encroached upon the home site until the house was converted for other purposes. The present home was built a few years later by the family. This home stood on a beautiful site on the brow of a hill overlooking the entire valley, with Lowellville immediately beneath, and within view of the stacks of the Sharon Steel Hoop Company, the Meehan Boiler Works, the power house of the Interurban Railroad, and many other features of the thriving industrial energy of the Mahoning Valley. The presence of limestone deposits on the Arrel farm was an influence dictating the location of some of the first furnaces in the valley.

The late Mr. Arrel was never a part of the political environment, but found opportunities in other directions to satisfy his public spirit. He and his wife had six children: Martha, who died in her early womanhood; Dorcas Rachel, the wife of G. E. Hamilton, of Lowellville; John William, who died in young manhood; Margaret Jane and Mary, both at home; and Frances, the wife of Paul Detchen, a real estate man in Detroit. Mr. Arrel was one of the first directors of the Dollar Savings Bank of Youngstown, and Mrs. G. E. Hamilton and Miss Margaret J. Arrel were directors of the Lowellville Bank.

One of the earliest settlers in what is now Mahoning County was John A. Arrel, the father of Walter S. Arrel.

Walter S. Arrel, the youngest child, was born on June 10, 1816, and died on January 5, 1901. He always resided in the county, attending strictly to his business, and had accumulated a fine property; he was the owner of 600 acres of excellent land in one tract, plus other real estate. In addition to extensive farming, which was his chief occupation, Mr. Arrel had at different times dealt in milling, stock and wool. His business capacity and enterprise were well known. He erected a fine brick residence in Poland Village, where he spent the remainder of his days enjoying his industry. Mr. Arrel married Miss Martha Duff, a daughter of Oliver and Jane (Tait) Duff, on March 6, 1871.

JOSEPH ARREL SMITH

Joseph Arrel Smith was born on a farm in Poland Township on September 23, 1838, and died in Struthers, Ohio, on July 17, 1903. He was the son of Robert and Margaret (Smith) Smith, who were cousins.

Robert Smith, the grandfather, was born in Pennsylvania in July, 1765. In 1802, he secured 400 acres of land and brought his family to Poland Township. He married Keziah Stewart and they reared ten children.

Robert Smith, their second child and the father of Joseph Arrel Smith, was born in Franklin County, Pennsylvania on June 17, 1802. At a young age, he married his cousin, Margaret Smith, who was born in Franklin County, Pennsylvania on December 6, 1808. She was the daughter Joseph and Rachel (Arrel) Smith. They had three children: Robert Stewart, who died October 5, 1838; James Clark, who died April 10, 1849; and Joseph Arrel. The father, Robert Smith, died in Poland Township on July 26, 1860, and was survived by his widow until January 3, 1889.

Joseph Arrel Smith attended Poland township schools and was reared to be a practical farmer. When Joseph's father died at an early age, heavy responsibilities rested upon him at the outset of his career, including the management of the large estate which had been left to his mother by her brother, James Smith, who had been a heavy landowner in Poland Township and died unmarried. Upon the death of his mother, Joseph Arrel Smith came into possession of the property he had managed for years. He was an agriculturist and a very successful stock raiser, although he confined his efforts mainly to management of the different farms, employing skilled labor to operate them. In 1900, he moved to Struthers, and was vice-president and director of the Struthers Bank.

On May 22, 1862, Joseph Arrel Smith married Mary A. Gault, a daughter of Robert Gault and a sister of John Gault. Mr. & Mrs. Smith had no children of their own and adopted John Galbraith at the age of five years.

John Galbraith Smith attended Youngstown School and then Westminster College, Amherst College, and received his law degree at Columbia University. He practiced law in Warren, Pennsylvania, and married Kate Brown, a daughter of Judge Brown of Warren.

September Morning at the Oaks

by

Tom Antonishak

Official Poland Township Bicentennial Commemorative Print
The House

The Fitch Kirtland-Bishop House was built in the 1850's on 25 acres. The Victorian house was built from bricks made on site by Fitch Kirtland, grandson of Turhand Kirtland, the original settler and agent of the old Connecticut Land Co. The home was called "The Oaks."

In 1903 George S. Bishop married Isabel Kirtland. In 1914 George S. Bishop bought the Kirtland farm from his brother-in-law Lucien Kirtland. The property is now owned by Mr. and Mrs. Somers.

THE ARTIST

Tom Antonishak, a resident of Poland, has gained prominence in the art world since winning national competitions. He has been selected as the top finalist for prestigious "Arts for the Parks" competition six times in the last eight years. In 1993 he won this National Parks competition. He has exhibited his wildlife art in shows across the country and participated in Leigh Yawkey Woodson "Birds in Art" show; in 1992 his art was chosen as the New York State Duck Stamp. Tom's work has been exhibited in such places as the Smithsonian, Mt. Rushmore, Grand Teton National Park, and art shows throughout the country.

TOM ANTONISHAK

Thomas Antonishak is a wildlife artist who says of his work, "I just try to bring to attention of the viewer how wonderful and beautiful nature can be...and how fragile it is becoming." Ever since Antonishak first began painting wildlife he is constantly reminded of the rewards of his work saying, "often people approach me and tell me stories of how one of my paintings reminds them of something in their own life..this sharing is what confirms my reward for painting and makes it all worth while.." His interest in wildlife began when he noticed an advertisement for a national art contest. This contest was for the National Park Academy Arts for the Parks Competition. Antonishak had done a painting of an eagle soaring across Mount Rushmore and decided to enter this painting in the competition. The competition for this contest is tremendous, with about 3,000 entries from the best artists the United States, Canada and Puerto Rico. Antonishak's painting was the first painting sold and now hangs at the Mount Rushmore National Memorial in South Dakota. Since then his paintings have been selected in the top 100 in 1990, 91, 92, 93, and 94. In 1993 the oil painting entitled "Autumn Cardinals and Creepers" featuring the scarlet songbird in Ohio's Cuyahoga Valley National Recreation area won the Grand Prize and the Gold Medallion Award of Merit for the Arts for the Parks Competition. This painting is now part of the permanent collection of the National Park Foundation.

Some other of Antonishak's accomplishments with wildlife painting includes the 1992 winning image for the New York Duck Stamp. Revenues generated by this program will go to save the wetlands and other bird habitats of New York and the Maritime Provinces of Canada. The painting called "Goose Island" was selected for Birds in Art, which is a prestigious international wildlife exhibit at the Leigh Yawkey Woodson Art Museum in Wausau, Wisconsin. His work was singled out from entries submitted by over 600 artists from all over the world. His work has been chosen for the Annual Fall Wild Wings Festival in 1992, 1993 and 1994 in Lake City, Minnesota.

The Jamestown Audubon Society of Jamestown, New York, has selected Antonishak's image entitled "Step 'n Out" for promoting the 1993 Nature Art Festival. The painting of wood ducks was used for limited edition prints, note card and posters. Antonishak has also been one of only 50 artists in the United States to be invited to an exhibit in the "Wildlife in Action Exhibition " to be held in Sydney and Melbourne, Australia in late 1995.

Antonishak's work is currently published by Heritage West in Houston, Texas. He also has numerous images printed on T-shirts, puzzles and cards.

Antonishak currently lives in Poland, Ohio with his wife Carol and their daughter and son. Thomas Antonishak grew up in the Mountains of Pennsylvania where he first developed his love for art and nature. Upon graduation from Windber Area High School, Antonishak served in the United States Navy during the Vietnam War and later worked in the Pentagon with the Defense Intelligence Agency. After serving in the Navy, Antonishak returned home and married his wife Carol. The two then moved to Pittsburgh where Tom attended The Art Institute of Pittsburgh majoring in graphic design. There he won the Merrill-Milai Scholarship and worked as a courtroom sketch artist and free-lanced for various local television stations as a news artist. After graduating with an associates degree Antonishak took a position as an illustrator with an advertising agency in Youngstown, Ohio. There he worked six years and then in 1981, opened his own commercial art studio. Antonishak's interest in painting wildlife stemmed from his interest in history, particularly with the American West . He began to travel to militia musters, pioneer villages and Indian gatherings to find authentic models for his paintings. He soon began to turn his pictures of the American West into wildlife. His style is marked with an acute sense of detail and intense color. He paints with oils for their flexibility. Antonishak says that wildlife painting is the most interesting and exciting subject to paint as "...it challenges you to research your subject and to learn the animals habitat... which allows me to share the reality of nature with others.

Charles M. Bishop

CHARLES M. BISHOP
The Broom Maker

The Other Bishop Family

Having lived in the Poland area most of my life, I passed the little Bishop house on N. Main Street (dated 1850) many times. Although I was aware that some of my relatives had lived in that house, it wasn't until Poland's Bicentennial that I really became interested in the Bishop family.

Civil War letters that had been lying in my attic for years were turned over to Connie Coloutes. Through her enthusiasm and drive, my whole family began delving into the past through diaries that Charles Bishop had kept for 18 years. We discovered that the little house belonged to my great-great grandparents, Charles and Catherine Bishop. He was a broom maker in Poland, as well as a handyman, and also was Sexton of the Methodist Church where he spent every Saturday and Sunday cleaning and trimming the wicks of the lamps and opening the church on Sunday mornings. For this, he received $48 per year.

When Yellow Creek flooded, as it did almost every year, he and his son Charley, helped to repair the bridge.

Besides making 30 to 100 brooms a day, much of his time was spent planting, mowing and haying for local farmers as well as providing food for his large family..

Quotes from his diaries: "Bought 50# flour for $1.50." "Got 285# hog to day. Cut and salted it." "Got 3 pieces of beef 3 1/2# for 84 cents." "Got a pig off Cover for $3.50." "Hauled 3,200 lbs. of coal, hauled 2,900 lbs of coal, total amount for both loads was $10.67." "Bought for the church 2 gals of oil $1.00, 4 lamp wicks 10 cents and 2 brooms 75 cents." Jan 1865: "First rate sleighing today." "Went to Canfield to pay taxes. Bought a fife for $1.50."

The United States of America was less than 100 years old when the War between the States broke out, with the attack on Fort Sumter on April 12, 1861.

Recruiters arrived from Cleveland to enlist men to serve in the army. Charles was a musician and played in the Fife and Drum Corps, which followed the recruiters from city to city. He became so enthusiastic that he lied about his age and enlisted in Company E. Poland Guard under Captain Zimmerman. This group was mustered into the 23rd Regiment of the Ohio Volunteers - June 13, 1861.

Description list of Charles M. Bishop by Witt. Zimmerman, Commander of Company E 23rd Regiment of the Ohio Volunteers as Musician, age 44 years, (He was really 50 years old, too old to be in the service and sickly), height 5 ft., 6 1/2 inches, light complexion, dark brown hair, blue eyes, occupation: Broom maker, Born in Boardman, Ohio, Enlisted at Camp Chase, Ohio - June 8, 1861 to serve 3 years.

A pass issued August 14, 1861. read: "Pass 8 musicians through the lines to practice once during A.M. and once during the P.M. until further notice." By order W. H. Zimmerman.

Charles served as a musician through battles at Cross Lanes, West. Virginia., Fayette and Raleigh, Flat-top Mountain, and through the Battle of Antietam. Unfortunately he was sickly and was discharged Oct. 9, 1862; he returned to Poland Oct. 15, 1862.

While he returned to family life, he was still very interested in the war and reported in his diaries: Dec. 31, 1862: "Morgan is a coming into Cincinnati." May 6, 1864: "The boys all went off to the army today. Grant is advancing and Lee's a falling back." May 14, 1864: "Grant is a whipping Lee in every battle." Dec. 26, 1864: "Sherman has taken Savannah."

Meanwhile Charles went on working, cutting and tying 30 to 100 brooms a day. He continued to write in his diaries: March 7, 1864: "Went to sugar camp this afternoon and tapped trees, cut wood and boiled sap. Got 13 qts. of syrup." Sept. 13, 1864: "went to the march in Boardman. Killed 2 squirrels and 7 pigeons." Sept 14, 1864: "Killed 1 pheasant, 13 pigeons and one squirrel." Oct. 22, 1864: "A cleaning and hulling beans. 18 bushels beans and 60 bushels potatoes." Oct. 26, 1864: "Finished husking corn - 44 bushels." Nov. 10, 1864: - "I was a'raising my new house." (He built a larger home for his growing family in the area that was taken over when Rt. 224 was rerouted straight through Poland Village.)

Charles reports history in his diaries: Mar. 4, 1865: - "Old Lincoln was inaugurated President for the second time." April 14, 1865: - "The sad news of the President's death has cast a gloom over our nation in all communities. O how dark! God pity the man or men who did it! Our preacher spoke a funeral service on Psalm 10." April 28, 1865: "They have shot Booth, the murderer of the President. Sgt. Corbett shot him."

June 30, 1881: "The comet is all the talk now. It is very bright." July 2, 1881: "A dispatch from Washington says President Garfield was shot this morning by a Frenchman." Sept. 19, 1881: "President Garfield died." Sept. 26, 1881: "Large funeral in Cleveland." June 29, 1882: "Gideow's last day on Earth. He was hanged." (???) July 1, 1882: "Gideow was buried under the jail."

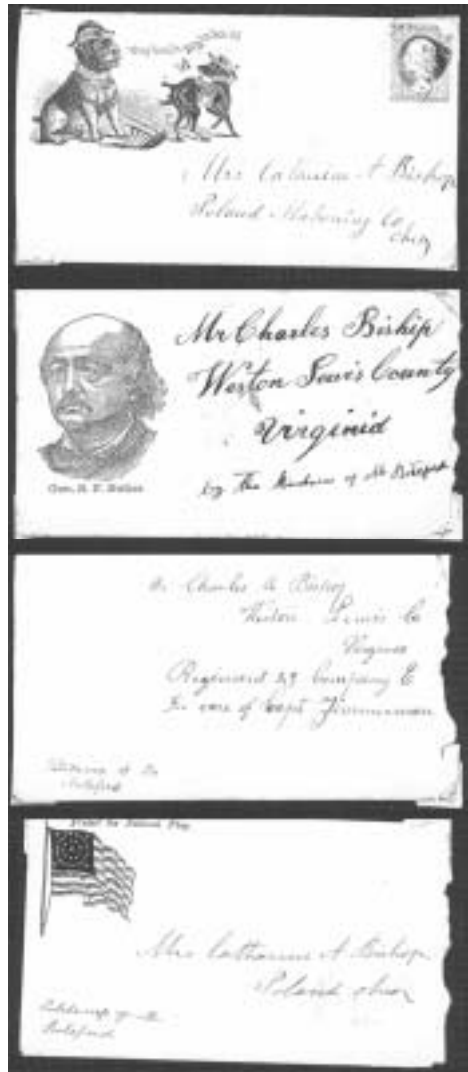

Two presidents of the U.S.A. came from the 23rd Ohio Volunteers - Rutherford B. Hayes who became president in 1877 and William McKinley who became president in 1897.

Charles had the privilege of meeting McKinley when he came to Poland on a political trip.. The last entry in his diary was in August of 1882 when he complained of being "Very unwell." He died in 1883. His lonely little grave marker, the name almost obliterated, lies in the Poland cemetery near the old bridge.

Charles M. Bishop was born August 9, 1811, the son of Joseph and Arralanta Bishop.

I wish I had known him!

WILLIAM BISHOP

The Shoe Maker

There were two different families in the early Poland years with the Bishop name. Most of us are familiar with the Bishop mansion on Route 170 and with that family's history. My ancestors were early settlers also, originating from Worchester County in Maryland where they were plantation owners. Our original ancestor, Henry Bishop, arrived in 1634 with the founding group that settled at St. Mary's City, Maryland, and he later established the town of Snow Hill in 1686. Three generations later my ancestors moved into this area in the early 1800's. Joseph Bishop, his son Benjamin, and their families, along with their free slaves settled on property near the intersection of Route 224 and South Ave. in Boardman Township. Benjamin, a carpenter, later owned the property, but his two brothers Charles and William settled in nearby Poland.

Charles Bishop was a broom maker who owned property on the corner of what is now Cover Dr. and North Main St. William Bishop, Sr., and his wife Lucille (Boyinton) operated a shoemaker shop in a small two story building on the southeast corner of Rt. 224 and Water St.; William was also a fiddler, and in the evenings people would gather to hear him play and to dance socially. When "Old Bill" had "half soled" a pair of child's shoes and was asked the cost, he would always say, "oh, about a dime to buy me a powder." In 1900 after his death the shop was sold and became the home of the Post Office; in 1927 this building was razed to enlarge the now existing Fire Station. He was called "Old Bill" to distinguish him from his son (my Great Grandfather), also William Bishop (Will), with his wife Almeda (Smith) owned and operated the Bishop House Hotel at the corner of Main and Water Streets.

William, Jr., purchased "the Brainard House" on the northwest corner of Main and Water Streets in which he operated a small hotel (Inn) and the family's residence, (see illustration #1), while using one of the old barns as a livery, where they had a couple of horses and buggies for hire. The Inn, which was in operation from 1876 to 1933), was well known for its meals and the very large portions that were served. Later the Inn was sold to the Johnson family and was remodeled into a store room (see illustration #2) and Barber Shop before becoming the home of the Poland Bakery.

Early in the 1950s, Route 224 was straightened, and the old hotel was razed (see illustration #3). The land was leased to the Sunoco Oil Co. for a service station (currently McQuaid's Gas Station).

The above history is presented through the courtesy of Robert William Bishop, Jr. of Spitler Rd., Poland, in memory of past and present descendants.

WIDOW'S CIVIL WAR PENSION

The above is a copy of the original pension that my great, great, great Grandmother Margaret Hively (Musser) received after the death of her husband during the Civil War. Margaret Musser married Peter Hively on July 16, 1844, and together they had six children. Margaret was the daughter of Peter Musser (Mosser) who founded the nearby community of Petersburg and is pictured below. On March 18, 1863 Peter died in a Union camp near Murfreesboro, Tennessee while a Private in Company "B" of the 19th Regiment of Ohio. No one knew what motivated him to enter military service at the age of 43 with five children still at home from his second marriage: his death six months after his induction certainly changed the lives and fortunes of his family members. It is speculated that the death of his eldest son Albert (from his first marriage) in 1862, caused Peter to enlist in the same military company of his son, out of love and grief over his son who at the age of 19 was taken from him by war. Pictured below is my great, great, Grandfather Elias M. Hively, who was listed on the widow's pension as a dependent and was 9 years old at the time of his father's death. His mother received eight dollars a month for life and an additional two dollars a month for each of her children until their sixteenth birthday; she received the pension until October 21, 1895.

My great, great grandfather's family originated from Germany and his ancestor Chistopher Hively came to this county in 1749; originally the family name was Haible.

My great, great grandmother's family's ancestors were Hans Musser and his wife who were among early Swiss settlers who came to Pennsylvania from the Austrian Tyrol in 1709. Later some of their descendants and their family would become some of the first settlers to make permanent homesteads in the Springfield Township area in early 1801.

Generations later my grandmother Bertha Hively would marry Enis Bishop, my grandfather, and join the two established families together. Courtesy of Robert Bishop, Jr.

CLELAND FAMILIES

WILLIAM CLELAND

Mr. William Cleland (June 1, 1842-April 21, 1912) married Mary E. Robison (September 1, 1841-May 23, 1938). The William Cleland family resided on Water Street.

Mary Robison Cleland died at the age of 97. She was the oldest native resident of Poland and the daughter of James Robison, who overhauled the Pittsburgh-to-Cleveland stage coaches when they stopped in Poland overnight. Mary was born in the old Woodruff place on Main Street and attended a small, one-room school at the corner of the old cemetery. Her husband William was a harness maker and had a harness shop on Main Street. After her husband's death, her sister, Mrs. Owen (LuLu) Griffith, moved in with her. Mr. and Mrs. William Cleland did not have any children.

Mollie (Mary E. Robison) McFarland kept a calendar in 1868, and noted the birthdays of some of her family members. The day her sister, LuLu, was born, Mollie said the baby weighed 4 pounds, and wrote that LuLu was nice but cross. On September 1, 1868, Mollie was 27 years old. No mention is made of her marriage to William Cleland that year, but William Cleland's business stamp is stamped on the calendar. In the family plot at Riverside Cemetery are the names of Wilbert Cleland and Mary Cleland but no other information.

JAMES CLELAND

James Cleland (1816-1900) married Caroline Harmon (1831-1914). James had a copper shop in a one and a half story building on the southwest corner of Water Street and Botsford Street. The family resided in the house next to the shop. The house had an addition and was remodeled through the years and became the home of his artist son, James Moore Cleland (1862-1925) and his wife Mary Truesdale (1871-1936).

James was a natural born artist. Having no formal art lessons, he had a talent for transferring to canvas the beauty of the landscapes and woodland scenes along Yellow Creek, old bridges, and quaint or historic buildings. James M. Cleland married Mary Truesdale, a daughter of Clark Truesdale, and resided for the rest of their years in the family home on Water Street. They had two children: Eugene T. Cleland of Detroit and Mrs. Virginia Lary of Glendale, California.

After the death of James M. Cleland in 1925, his brother William Lyman Cleland (1864-1939) razed the old copper shop and built the present stone and frame house, which was designed by James M. Cleland's son Eugene T. Cleland, who had just completed his education, majoring in architecture.

In the James Cleland family plot at Riverside are Alvin McNabb (1856-1897) and his wife Flora Cleland McNabb (1850-1890). No other information is available.

From information and pictures collected, we speculate that there were two Cleland families living on Water Street in separate homes; James Cleland's family at 35 Water Street and his relatives across the Street at 36 Water Street.

FIRST FEMALE POLAND TOWNSHIP TRUSTEE

Constance Dolores Ambrose Coloutes was born in Youngstown, Ohio, (April 16, 1930) a daughter of Anthony Louis Ambrose (July 7, 1903-February 9, 1969) and Josephine Maria Marzano (June 18, 1910-September 4, 1971). Her grandparents were Francesco Marzano (May 13, 1907-May 27, 1950) and Olympia G. Bianco, born November 30, 1890 (still living); and Frank Ambrose (D' Ambrosio) (April 15, 1871-March 2, 1962 -- traveled on the Mayflower May 5, 1901) and Concetta Spadera (1894-January 18, 1920).

Siblings: Anthony Louis, Jr.; Vincent Joseph, Delorma Maria Ambrose Kosiba. Constance moved to Poland Township January 31, 1968, from Liberty Township. A graduate of Ursuline High School, she married Leonard Anthony Coloutes on January 27, 1951, and divorce him on January 26, 1995. They have six children: Constance Delores Coloutes (Jan. 16, 1952) married Michael L. Shaeffer and they have five children: Derron S. Ward, Autumnne Lee, Michele C., Michael L. Jr., and Mariya Lynn.; Leonard A Coloutes, Jr., (April 4, 1954) married Judith L. DeLisio and have three children; Leonard A. III, Elizabeth Ann, and Rebecca Joann.; Antoinette Marie Coloutes, (November 28, 1955) married Jeffery R. Martin and they have two children: Jesse R. and Caitlin M.; Donna Jean Coloutes (December 10, 1957) not married; Dominic Joseph (April 14, 1963) married Roberta Liles and they have two children, Dominic J., Jr. and Savanna Marie; Barbara Anne Coloutes (March 18, 1964) married Robert A. Plak, no children.

Constance Coloutes, better known as Connie, has always been very community minded, being a Girl Scout Leader, Brownie Leader, Girl Scout neighborhood Secretary, Den Mother, Cub Scout Pack Secretary, St. Jude Children's Research Hospital telethons fund raiser and worker; but most important, founding the D.U.M.P. Committee, fighting to protect the environment and the water from contamination from the dumping of garbage in the old limestone quarries, and organizing bus trips to Columbus to support H. B. 592. Known as an Activist and fighter for peoples' rights, Connie was elected the first woman trustee for Poland Township and took office Jan. 1, 1990. She is serving her second term as trustee. An agreement with B.F.I., the commissioners, the health department and the trustees was reached; the following provisions were made: (1) that B.F.I. would lay plastic liners to protect the environment from leachade: and (2) that B.F.I. would install water lines in Poland Township around the landfill. To date, B. F. I. has spent about three million dollars for water lines; most of the township no longer has to depend on wells for water. Connie takes her job as trustee very seriously and continues to fight for peoples' rights. She has been one of the staunch supporters of Poland Township as a bedroom community, especially that mining would not be permitted west of Moore Road.

DUNCAN FAMILY

In 1848, John Arnold sold lot #5 and #26 to James A. Duncan for $1,750. Mr. Arnold had purchased the lots in 1833 from John McClelland for $600.

James A. Duncan (1886) willed the property to his children: Henry; William; Nancy; and James E. Henry and William left their shares to Nancy and James E. Duncan.

James E. Duncan (1917) married Rebecca Brownlee, and they reared three children: Katharine Rebecca; George Brownlee; and Alex Duncan. Alex died at the age of 20. Nancy never married, became the eldest survivor, and inherited lot #5 and #26. George Brownlee Duncan lived with his Aunt on the farm. Nancy died in 1938, leaving all of her property to her nephew George and her niece Katharine.

George B. Duncan (1962) married Myrtle McKay, and they had one son, George B. Duncan, Jr. George, Sr. made his living as a florist, building and operating Duncan's greenhouse on Center Road (Rt. 224). In July, 1944, the greenhouse was sold separately from the rest of lot #5 to Baz and Margaret Wellman. The Wellmans operated the greenhouse until December 1, 1960, when it was destroyed by fire.

George Brownlee Duncan, Sr., owned much of the land from US Route 224 to State Route 616 and east of Riverside Cemetery to Stewart's Hill. In 1954, Katherine and George Duncan subdivided lot #5 and sold it to Ken Mitchell. Today, it is known as Frontier Town and Duncan Drive. When planning "Frontier Town," the Duncan's deeded what is now known as Firemen's Field to the Village of Poland on September 9, 1952, to be used forever as a public park. Mr. Duncan built two house on his property. Members of his family still reside in one of the family's home and the other can be seen at the far end of the cemetery grounds. Mr. Duncan served as a volunteer fireman for almost 40 years.

George Brownlee Duncan, Jr., married Lucille Kaser in 1940. They had two children: George Brownlee, III, and Katharine. After his discharge from the Army in 1946, he built his home on lot #5 and lived there until his death in 1981. Today, George Brownlee Duncan, III, resides in the family home with his wife Angela.

In 1886, Bertha Long married Dr. Carson R. Justice of Poland. Mrs. Justice's parents, John and Emma Long of Brookfield, Ohio, soon followed Bertha to Poland. Their daughter, Areana Long McKay, remained in Brookfield, Ohio, with her daughter, Bertha McKay. The Longs brought their young granddaughter, Myrtle McKay, with them. On December 12, 1895, John and Emma Long purchased lots #61, #84, #87, and #50 from Robert and Almyra Walker. Robert and Almyra had purchased these lots from Margaret and Jacob Cover on April 18, 1881. Dr. C. R. Justice purchased lot #90 on the same day from the Walkers. The total selling price for all 5 lots, covering 28 and 59/100 acres, was $4,000.

The most famous of these lots was lot #61. Located on the corner of Riverside Dr. and South Main Street, it was recently renovated.

Both Emma and John Long wrote separate wills within two days of each other. Mr. Long's will, dated March 18, 1896, referred to "our two daughters, Areana Long McKay and Bertha Long Justice." In contrast, Mrs. Long's will made no mention of Areana. She bequeathed everything to her daughter Bertha Long Justice. Myrtle McKay married George Brownlee Duncan, Sr. and resided on lot #5 until her death in 1963. Dr. and Mrs. Justice didn't have any children.

Rules and Regulations of the Poland Cemetery Association.

- No. 1. All lots shall be held in possession of an act making provision for the incorporation of cemetery associations, passed February 24th, 1848, and not to be used for any other purpose than as a place of burial for the dead; nor shall any person be allowed to be interred therein who shall have died in any prison, or shall have been executed for any crime, except by permission of a majority of the Board of Trustees.
- No. 2. Proprietors shall not allow interments to be made in their lots for a remuneration, nor shall any transfer or assignment of any lot, or any interest therein be valid without the consent in writing of the said Board of Trustees to be had, and entered upon each transfer or assignment.
- No. 3. All interments or disinterments shall be made under the direction of the Board of Trustees or their authorized agent; said Board fixing the compensation which shall be required paid.
- No. 4. The proprietors of each lot shall have the right to erect any proper stones, monuments or sepulchral structures thereon, and also to enlarge steps, steps and plants in the same; but no trees growing within the lot or border shall be cut down or destroyed, nor shall the goods of any lot be stored without the consent of the Board of Trustees.
- No. 5. If any trees or shrubs, situated in any lot, shall by reason of their roots, branches or otherwise become detrimental to the adjacent lots or streets, or highway, or inconvenient to passers, it shall be the duty of the said Trustees and they shall have the right to enter the said lot and remove the said trees and shrubs, or such parts thereof as are detrimental, at night or by day.
- No. 6. If any monuments, slabs, or enclosures or any structures whatever, or any inscription be placed in or upon any lot which shall be deemed by the said Trustees, or a major part of them shall have the right and it shall be their duty to enter upon such lot and remove the said monuments or enclosures.
- No. 7. It shall be the duty of the Board of Trustees, from time to time, to lay out or alter such avenues or walks, and to make such rules and regulations for the government of the grounds as they may deem requisite and proper to secure and promote the general objects of the Association.
- No. 8. The proprietors of lots and their families shall be allowed access to the grounds at all times, observing the rules which are or may be adopted for the regulation of visitors.
- No. 9. No lots will be regarded sold until fully paid for and if parties make interments before paying in full for these lots the Association reserves the right to remove the bodies to the single grave adjacent and sell such lot or lots to other parties.
- No. 10. All owners of lots are prohibited from erecting buildings, stone walls, or bridges, or any other structures for the purpose of enclosing their lots.

MONTHLY STATEMENT
THE POLAND CREAMERY AND KEEPING TRACT

JAMES SCHARVILLE

James Scharville was born in Farrell, Pennsylvania, in 1947, and graduated from Farrell High School in 1965. He received his B. S. degree from Youngstown State University in 1969. In 1969 James married his high school sweetheart, the former Patricia Ann O'Brien. Patricia is a registered nurse at Youngstown Osteopathic Hospital. They have two children, Aimee, a graduate of Kent State University, and Dan a graduate of Allegheny College. Dan has been accepted into law school but at this time hasn't decided which university he will accept.

James has been a teacher in the Youngstown City School System, and a salesman for H. J. Heinz Corporation. He is presently employed by the Mahoning County Educational Service Center since 1972 and is the Operations Coordinator for the Early Childhood Programs of Mahoning County. Their family moved to Poland in 1972; it was a community that was noted for excellent schools and services to its citizens, the type of community in which to raise their children.

James Scharville has been and continues to be involved in many community and school organizations. He has also served as a part-time police officer in both the township and the village. James was first elected to government in Poland as the Clerk/Treasurer in 1982. He is presently serving his second four-year term as township trustee.

Upon retirement, James and Patricia hope to travel, but Poland will always be their home.

THE HAYNES FAMILY

Calvin T. Haynes, a prominent businessman, was in partnership with Alonzo B. Cover.

Calvin was born in Boardman Township on December 10, 1863. Charles S. Haynes was born in Vernon, Trumbull County, Ohio, on a farm owned by his father David Haynes. Charles S. died in Poland Township in 1868. He was married to Lucy Meeker; they had two children: twins Calvin T. and Lily, who married Professor M. A. Kimmel.

Calvin T. Haynes was reared in Poland and attended Poland Schools. He farmed 90 acres, which his father owned. Mr. Haynes was married (first) in 1885, to Eva Marshall, who died in 1901, leaving one child, Hazel. He then married Lydia Kennedy, a daughter of Abraham Kennedy,

COOK FITCH KIRTLAND

Cook Fitch Kirtland made the bricks on the site where he built his home in 1851

Cook Fitch Kirtland, who spent his entire life in Poland Township, Mahoning County, was born in Poland on September 21, 1826, and died in his 70th year, on April 14, 1896. He was a son of Henry T. Kirtland, who was born November 16, 1795. From the period of the first settlement the Kirtland family has been prominent in the history of Poland.

Turhand Kirtland, the original settler and agent of the old Connecticut Land Company, the grandfather of Cook F. Kirtland, was born in Wallingford, Connecticut, November 16, 1775, coming to settle in Poland with his brother Jared and his sister and her husband, Jonathan Fowler.

Cook Fitch Kirtland, was reared in Poland Township. He was engaged in banking and other businesses, being the owner and operator of several farms. His first wife was Maria Perkins Swift. They had two children Henry Kirtland who died at the age of 19 and a daughter Maria,, who died at the age of 10. On February 3, 1876, Mr. Kirtland married Harriet Swift, a cousin of his first wife and daughter of Lucian and Sarah (West) Swift. She was born in Akron, Ohio, and was the eldest of four children. Two children were born of the second marriage, Isabell and Lucian Swift.

Isabel Kirtland Bishop purchased her brother's half share of the house .

Isabel Kirtland married George S. Bishop and they had two sons, George Kirtland and Fitch Kirtland Bishop. Around 1851, Cook Fitch Kirtland built his Victorian House on 25 acres of land from bricks made on site by him.

A visit to Riverside Cemetery shows the family plot with monuments for Turhand Kirtland and his family members and the last member of his family to be placed there, George Bishop.

Interesting reading is the Abstracts of the deeds and wills of the Kirtland family describing the properties that were purchased and the trusts of property left to family members, with instructions not to cut trees except for fuel or fences.

The Kirtland Bishop home was called The Oaks in later years and stayed in the family until recently.

ABSTRACT OF TITLE TO, AND INCUMBRANCES UPON

The following described premises: Situated in the Township of Poland, County of Mahoning and State of Ohio, and known as being parts of Great Lots Nos. 6, 7, 17, 8 and 18 according to original survey of said Township, and bounded and described in one parcel as follows:-

Beginning in the center of the public highway known as the North Lima and

Poland Road on the South-Easterly boundry line of the Village of Poland: thence North 62-3/4 degrees East 3 chains and 15 links to a post: thence South 30 degrees East 3 chains and 83 links to a post at the most Southerly corner of a lot owned by Emma Hine: thence North 60 degrees East along the South-Easterly line of said Hine's land, a distance of 3 chains and 4 links to the center of Pittsburgh road so called: thence South 30 degrees East along the center of the Pittsburgh Road, a distance of about 25 chains and 53 links to the most Northerly corner of a tract of land now owned by Mary Davis and formerly owned by Thomas Riley: thence Southwesterly along the North-Westerly line of said Davis tract of land, a distance of 5 chains to the point: thence South 11-1/4 degrees East a distance of about 5 chains and 23 links to a point: thence North about 59 degrees East a distance of about 6 chains and 35 links to the center of said Pittsburgh road: thence South 30 degrees East along the center of said road, a distance of 34 chains and 49 links to a point: thence North 78 degrees West a distance of 8 chains and 24 links to point in the Northerly line of lands now or formerly owned by Susan and Elmer Kirtland: thence West along the Northerly line of said Kirtland's land, a distance of about 31 chains and 51 links to the center of said North Lima and poland Road: thence North about 7 degrees East along the center of said road, a distance of about 58 chains and 60 links to the place of beginning and containing about 140 acres of land.

Excepting and reserving therefrom all part of said premises included in the public highways.

The State of Connecticut claimed title to the lands between the forty-first parallel and the parallel of forty-two degrees two minutes north, and extending from the western boundary of Pennsylvania one hundred and twenty miles due west (afterwards called the Connecticut Western Reserve,) by virtue of the grants by James I., King of England, to the Plymouth Company (November, 1630); by the Plymouth Company to Robert, Earl of Warwick (1630): and by the Earl of Warwick to Viscount Say and Seal and others, called the Patent of Connecticut (19th March, 1631); confirmed by King Charles II., 25th April, 1662.

These claims of the State of Connecticut were confirmed in pursuance of an act of Congress by PATENT OF THE UNITED STATES, executed 2d March, 1801, by John Adams, President, to the Governor, for the time being, of the State of Connecticut, for the benefit of the said State and its grantees, confirming in them the title to the soil of the said Western Serve; which is on record in the office of the Secretary of the State of Connecticut, at Hartford; "State Records for Deeds, Pattents of Land, 7c., No. 5." p. 197.

The State of Connecticut sold 3,000,000 acres of the Easterly end of the Connecticut Western Reserve, to Joseph Howland and forty-seven others, for $1,200,000

(2d September, 1795). The deeds therefor are recorded in the office of the Secretary of the State of Connecticut: "State Record for Deeds Pattents of Land, &c., No. 5, " pp. 1-69 inclusive. Copies thereof are recorded in Trumbull County, Ohio, in "Western Reserve Draft-Book," pp. 5-73 inclusive.

Joseph Howland and his associates, as members of the Connecticut Land Company, joined in a deed of trust to John Caldwell, John Morgan and Jonathan Brace, the survivors and survivor of them and the heirs of the survivor, conveying to said Trustees the whole of said 3,000,000 acres of land, with power to survey, plat and sell said lands (5 September, 1795). This deed is on record in the office of the Secretary of the State of Connecticut: State Records for Deeds, Pattents of Land, &c., No. 5," p. 97. A copy thereof is on record in Trumbull County, Ohio, in "Western Reserve Draft Book," County Records of Deeds, Vol. A. page 418.

By Act of the Congress of the Confederation adopted July 13', 1787, the lands lying North-West of the Ohio River and West of Pennsylvania were erected into the North-West Territory, with Chillicothe as the seat of government, and provision was made for its government by the territorial officers and legislature.

By proclamation of the Governor of the North-West Territory dated July 27", 1788, the County of Washington, comprising the North-East part of the present State of Ohio, and including the lands within the territorial limits of the County of Mahoning, was established with its County seat at Marietta. This attempt on the part of the Territorial Government to gain jurisdiction over the lands of the Connecticut Western Reserve, however, was not recognized by the Reserve Settlers in as much as they claimed title to their lands under grants from the State of Connecticut. By the Governor's proclamation dated July 20", 1797, Washington County was sub-divided and the Northern portion thereof, including all of the present County of Mahoning became known as Jefferson County, with Steubenville as its County seat.

January 30, 1798, the members of the Connecticut Land Company made a draft among themselves of certain portions of their lands. There were ninety-three shares or drafts, each of the value of $12,903.23. In the fifty-first draft, which was one of two drawn by the following named persons, the whole of Poland Township, being Township #1 in the First Range of Townships and comprising 16,140 acres, was drawn in the following proportions, (Draft Book, page 291.)

By proclamation of the Governor of the North-West Territory dated July 10", 1800, that part of Jefferson County which lay within the limits of the Connecticut Western Reserve, was erected into the County of Trumbull, with Warren as its County seat. This County included all of the present County of Mahoning except the Townships of Smith, Green, Goshen, Beaver and Springfield. See Section 23-95, Revised Statues of Ohio.

On April 30", 1802, the Congress of the United States passed the Enabling Act authorizing the organization of the present State of Ohio, and its admission to the Union "when formed." In November, 1802, the First Constitution of Ohio was adopted, signed and approved and under its provisions and in accordance with the terms of the Enabling Act of Congress, Ohio was organized as a State and admitted to the Union on March 1", 1803.

)	Probated December 3", 1844.

To All persons whom it may concern, be it known, that I, Turhand Kirtland, of Poland in Trumbull County and State of Ohio, this 25" day of October, 1827, do make and declare this to be my last will and testament, as follows, to wit:-

After my debts are paid, I give and bequeath to my wife, Polly the choice of my horse kind and side saddle and bridle, best be and furniture, one set of chairs, one table, one stand, two chests, one pot kittle and tea kittle, best set of table furnature, one looking glass, one pr. tongs, peal and andirons, frying pan, grid iron and warming pan, and one years provisions, to be her own property forever, and further during her life, the use or profits of one third of my dwelling house and other buildings belonging to the same, and of all the lands and improvements I owned lying East of Yellow Creek, South of the Pittsburgh Road and West of New Lisbon road to Burgess land: also I give and bequeath to my said wife two dollars per week during life to be paid her by my executors out of my estate, to be paid half yearly.

2d. I give and bequeath to the three children of my daughter Mary Beach Hall, deceased, viz:- Polly, Turhand Kirtland and Lucy, the following tract of land, situate in Township #5 in 16" Range in County of Lorian (Called Eaton) to bound South on the South line of the Township, East on the North and South center line to extend West and North one mile and one-half, which together with what I gave sd daughter as setting out at or after her marriage is to be in full all claims sd children are ever to have as heirs of my estate, and my will is that if all the afore named children decease without lawful issue, the land is to revert back to my four sons hereafter to be named.

3d. I give and bequeath to the three children of my daughter Nancy Morse, deceased, the following described lands, viz:- all my right in about 320 acres of land in Boardman, bought of James McLallen, also all the land I own in Poland, bought of Dunlap, bounded North by Reed and Henry, West by Youngstown road, South by the East and West Center road and East by the old furnace Road, to opposite the North-West corner of land owned by Michael Rayn: thence crossing said road to Yellow Crick: thence down sd crick to Reeds land, with all the appurtenances, (to be with what I have before given to my sd daughter by way of setting out at and since her marriage in full of all claims sd heirs or their representatives shall ever have to my estate) with this express condition that if all the three children decease without lawful issue, the land to revert back and vest in my four sons hereafter to be named.

And 4th. All the residue of my estate, both real and personal my will is that it be equally divided between my four sons, Jared Potter, Henry Turhand, Billious and George, and if any of my four sons should decease without lawful issue, their_____of every kind of my estate is to vest equally with my other sons or their lawful issue, and what each son has received in advances to be taken into account (without interest) viz:-Jared Potter is to be charged twenty-five hundred dollars for what money I have advance in, and what he has recd. from the estate of Jack John of Willingford, deceased, besides what accounts I have charged on my book now unsettled since the 20th. of January, 1824. Also sd. Jared Potter is to have all the farm on which this dwelling house stands in Boardman, bounded North on the East and West center road; West by Nathaniel Blakslee. South and East by Richard H. Hall, supposed to contain one hundred twenty acres, to charge to him at fifteen dollars pr acre. Also the land on the North side of Center road, East by Youngstown road, North by James Phillips and West by Isaac Blackmans at fifteen dollars pr. And also a tract of land South of Nathaniel Blacksleys and West of Richard H. Halls lands, suppose to contain sixty-four and half acres to be charged to him at seven dollars pr. acre. And if sd Jared Potter shall hereafter receive a larger sum from his grandmother Potter than my other sons, it is to be taken into account so as to make them all equal.

5th. My son Henry Kirtland is to be charged three thousand dollars for money charged to him before the 4th. of June, 1825, to be as part of his share and is to have all the lands I own in Poland and Boardman East of Yellow Crick South of the Pittsburgh Road, East by Campbells, Riley and Dunlop and South by Burgisses, part of which is incumbered by the widows right of dower and is to be charged to him at fifteen dollars pr. acre.

6th. Billious having relinquished his studies, my will is that he be charged three hundred dollars as part of his share of my estate for moneys expended in preparing him for college, My will is that my bank stock be equally divided between my four sons, and I hereby enjoin and order my sons Billious and George and the children of my daughter Mary Beach Hall and Nancy Moss, or their Guardian, execute bonds to secure Jared Potter Kirtland against a bond he gave Thaddeus Cook of Wallingford, for a deed of land given by will of Jack John of Wallingford, to my wife and children, which I directed him to sell and for the avails of which he is charged in this will: which bond is to be executed before they have legal possession of the above bequests. Also I hereby fully empower my Executors to carry into complete efforts all contracts that I have unsettled by making deeds, receipts, discharge in as ample a manner as I myself could do were I living and present and further if my executors shall find it for the benefit of the family to have any of my lands sold or contracts changed, they are hereby fully authorized to do same by making deed or any necessary writings.

And lastly, I do hereby appoint my two sons Jared Potter and Henry Turhand Kirtland, Executors of this my last Will and Testament.

 Probated June Term, 1849.

To all people to whom these presents shall come, know ye, that I, John Campbell, of Poland, in the County of Mahoning and State of Ohio, considering the uncertainly of this mortal life, but being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do upon the most sol m consideration make this my last will and testament in manner following to-wit:-

First: I will and bequeath to my beloved sister Mrs. Elizabeth McClurgh the sum of two hundred dollars.

Second: I will and bequeath to the Home or Domestic Missionary Society in trust of my executor, to be paid over the Treasurer of said Society for their use, the sum of two hundred dollars.

Thirdly: I will and bequeath to The American Bible Society in trust to my Executor, to be paid over to the Treasurer or Trustees of said society for their use, on consideration that the said Society shall constitute my son James W. Campbell a life member of said Society, if he shall wish or choose to be made so and provided the sum be sufficient for said purpose, otherwise to be paid Society at all events, the sum of one hundred dollars.

 Of) Dated January 23", 1874.
 Jacob Lee.) Probated July 6", 1874.

In the Name of the Benevolent Father of All, Amen:

Be it known to all men, that I, Jacob Lee, of Poland Mahoning County, Ohio, being of lawful age, of sound and disposing mind and memory and under no restraint, do publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, in manner and form as follows, revoking and annulling all former wills made by me.

1st. It is my will that all my just debts and other expense be fully paid.

2nd. I give to my beloved wife Rebecca S. Lee in lieu of her right of dower, during her natural life, that lot of land with all the appurtenances thereto belonging in Poland, Mahoning County, Ohio, deeded to me by William Fankel and wife, containing eight-seven and a half acres of land. Also two thirds in value of the household furniture, including beds and bedding: two thirds in value of all the farming implements and one horse, one set of harness, two cows and ten sheep. The household furniture, beds, bedding and farming implements to be selected by my wife after they are appraised.

3rd. I give and bequeath to my wife absolutely six hundred dollars as her own for her own use.

4th. It is my will that my son Chauncey Lee shall have the privilege of taking the seventy-nine acres of land that I bought of Boyd at eighty-five dollars an acre, if he chooses to take it. Should he refuse to take it then my Executors shall sell it to the best advantage.

5th. It is my will that after my wife's decease, that my son Edward Lee shall have the privilege of taking the eighty-seven and a half acres known as the Fankel lot at eighty-five dollars an acre: should he refuse my executors shall sell it to the best advantage.

6th. I will and direct that my Executors give to my son Andrew K. Lee, a deed made out by me to him of a house and lot #68 in the Village of Poland and that two hundred and fifty dollars be deducted from his share for it.

7th. I direct that any lease or contract made by me shall be fully complied with.

8th. It is my will that my sons and daughters, viz:- Mary, Andrew K. Sophia, Ira, Edward, Sarah Ann, Lucy and Chauncy after the bequest are paid shall be entitled to equal shares of the balance of my estate.

9th. I direct my Executor to sell all of my personal estate not given to my wife and what real estate not given to my wife during her lifetime. And at her decease to sell what personal property and farming implements that she received at my death that she may have at that time.

10th. I direct that my Executor give to my wife for the support of the family, any provisions on hand, with provisions sufficient for one years support after my decease, with sufficient feed to keep the horse, two cows and ten pigs for one year if it is necessary.

11th. I appoint my sons Edward Lee and Chauncy Lee my Executors with full power to convey land or any other business to be done in the settlement of my estate, and appoint them Trustees for Andrew K. Lee and Mary Lee, my son and daughter to take charge of their share, and if it is necessary, if the interest of their share should not keep them, then to use the principal and that they shall give bonds to the Probate Court for the same.

12th. I appoint my son Edward Lee as Trustee for my daughter Sophia to manager any money coming to her from my estate: to give her one hundred dollars out of her shares as soon as he can. The ballance to be put to interest, the interest to be paid to he annually. In the event of her being left without a husband, then to pay her all of her share as soon as it becomes due. In the event of her death the he is to pay it to her heirs equally or to their Guardians, if they are minors.

In the sale of any of my land whether to my sons or others, the one fourth of the purchase money to be paid at the time of the sale, one fourth in one year, one fourth in two years and one fourth in three years, with interest on the payments at the rate of six per cent annually.

Last Will and Testament)	Will Vol. 13, Page 144.
Of)	Dated January 20", 1887.
C. F. Kirtland.)	Probated May 22", 1896.

Know all men by these present, that I, C. F. Kirtland, residing in Poland Township, Mahoning County, in the State of Ohio, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby make and publish this my last will and testament, in manner following, to-wit:-

Item first:- I direct that my burial expenses, and my debts, in any there shall be, at the time of my death, shall be paid from any money which at the time of my death, shall be paid from any money which at the time, I may have on hand or upon deposit.

Item second:- I give and devise unto my Executrix, in trust, at that part of my personal estate, which, at the date of my death, shall consist of, or be represented by money, bank accounts, notes, mortgages, bonds and stocks, to be held by my Executrix upon the following trusts: that is to say, said property shall be kept invested by my Executrix, so far as practicable so as to yield as good as income as shall be consistent with the safety of the investment. The income that shall, from time to time be derived from said funds shall be used for the purpose of paying the current taxes charged my estate, and for the purpose of supporting my wife and supporting and educating my children, until such a time as my children shall respectfully attain the age of majority: and if, after so applying said income there shall be any surplus, such surplus shall be added to and deemed apart of the principal of said trust fund. I direct that the principal of said trust fund, together with any surplus of income, which may be added thereto, shall be equally divided and distributed between my wife Harriet S. Kirtland, my daughter Isabel Kirtland and my son Lucian S. Kirtland, share and share alike, but, at the time and in the manner following, to-wit:- when my daughter Isabel shall arrive at the age of eighteen years, she shall receive from said fund the sum of ten thousand dollars to apply on her one third share thereof, and she shall receive the residue of her share, the day on which my son Lucian arrives at the age of twenty one years, or in the event of his not living to that age, then on the day on which he would have been twenty-one years old had he lived: when my son Lucian S. Kirtland shall attain the age of twenty-one years he shall receive from said fund, the sum of ten thousand dollars, to apply on his one third share thereof, and the residue of his said share thereof shall be paid to him when he becomes twenty-four years old: and when my Executrix shall have paid to my children, in manner aforesaid, their respective shares of said trust fund, then the remaining one-third thereof shall vest absolutely in my wife to use thence-forth in such manner as she may see fit.

Item third: I give and devise to my said wife, for and during the term of her natural life, the use, control and undisturbed possession of and income from the farm of about one hundred and sixty acres of land, situated in Poland Township, Mahoning County, Ohio, on which I now reside, together with the dwelling house and all other buildings: also, during her lifetime, the use and possession of all the horses, cattle and other live stock owned by me and kept on said farm, and also the uses and possession of all the wagons, carriages, buggies, harness and farming tools, implements and utensils, which pertain to said farm I desire that no timber be cut from said farm except such as it shall be necessary to use for the purpose of fuel and fences on the farm itself. It is my will that my children shall have their home with my wife, upon my said homestead farm until they shall both be twenty-one years old.

At the death of my said wife, the said farm shall belong absolutely to my two children, Isabel and Lucian.

Item fourth:- I give and bequeath unto my wife Harriet S. Kirtland all the furniture, bed and bedding, silver ware, crockery, glass and china ware, books, carpets, kitchen utensils and household and housekeeping goods of every kind, which shall be in my dwelling house at the time of my death.

Item fifth:- I give and bequeath to my daughter Isabel the "Dent" Gold watch, which was formerly owned by my son Henry who is now dead.

Item sixth:- I give and bequeath unto my son Lucian my "Fordsham" gold watch, with its chain, also my guns and gun fixtures, and also the gold and gold nuggets, which I have kept as specimans of what I got in California in 1849 and 1850.

Item sixth:- I give and devise unto my children, Isabel Kirtland and Lucian S. Kirtland, in equal shares and in fee simple, the land situated in Unity Township, Columbiana, Ohio and known as the Samuel Harrah Farm, and the George Warner farm, comprising in all about three hundred and sixty acres of land, together with my interest in all the personal and chattel property, which shall be on said land at the time of my death.

And it is my desire that my children have the possession and management of said farms and personal property at my decease. I do also give, devise and bequeath unto my two children aforesaid in equal shares all my property, both real and personal not here-inbefore specifically devised or bequeathed.

Item Seventh;_ The several provisions made by me in this will in favor of my wife shall be taken and deemed to be in lieu of her dower, and her distribution share of my personal estate and also in lieu of a statuary allowance for a years support.

Item eight:- I do hereby appoint and nominate my wife Harriet S. Kirtland Executrix of this my last will and as such I do hereby empower her to do all things necessary to be done for the proper settlement of my estate, including power to compromise and compound claims belongs to my estate and power to execute and deliver all deeds and papers necessary in order to complete all real or personal contracts entered into by me in my lifetime, and not fully completed. It is my desire that my wife be not required to give an undertaking as such Executrix but that the Court of Probate direct the same to be excused:
